

Heroes

in memory of First Strike Band of Brothers

by Jason A. Heald 8/03

TTB

Moderato

1 6 D mp Solo A/D

Moderato

Life is fra - gile, brief and fra - gile, and the key is nev - er held with - in our hand. Dan - gers sur - round us;

9 G/D A G

12 F#m B Em A

mys - ter - ies con - found us when life turns in ways that we did - n't plan.

15 D A/D G/D

We meet peo - ple, Spec - ial peo - ple, and they of - ten leave im - pres - sions where they stand. No one can fill their shoes, or share tal-ents that they used. So

18

A G F#m B

21

Em A Gm7 C7F Am

Tutti f

man - y things we don't un - der - stand. We look up to our he - roes

25

Dm Gm7 F Am

who make a dif-ference in this place. We look up to our he - roes

29

Gm Bb C C/Bb Am A7

p

to meet the chal - len - ges we face. Doo doo 33

Dm G7 Bb C f

doo doo When we look up to our he - roes, few would dare to cross.

37
8

Gm7 C7 F D mp

They'll be smil - ing down on us. Time is prec - ious;

46
8

A/D G/D A

short and prec - ious, so we make the most of time we have to - day. Look

49
8

G F#m B7 Em

deep in your heart, you'll find loved ones now de - part - ed that guide you in the choic - es you

52
8

A Gm7 C7F f Am Dm

make. We look up to our he - roes who make a dif - ference in this

56
8

Gm7 F Am Gm Bb C C/Bb

place. We look up to our he - roes to meet the chal - len - ges we face. There are